

Preliminary Programme Overview May 31-June 2, 2021

	Day 1: A Mother's Psychological Stress: Impact on the Infant Gut Microbiome and Neurodevelopment	Day 2: Breast(milk)feeding and DOHaD: how do infant feeding practices and human milk components shape health trajectories?"	Day 3: Pregnancy during the Pandemic: Risk factors and long-term implications for child health
10:45-10:55 am	Opening remarks
10:55-11:00am	Introduction for the day	Introduction for the day	Introduction for the day
11:00-11:45am	Dr. Rebecca Knickmeyer Associate Professor in Pediatrics and Development, Michigan State University Title: Gut Microbes and the Infant Brain	Dr. Bridget E Young Assistant Professor in Pediatrics and Public Health Sciences, University of Rochester, Golisano Children's Hospital Title: TBA	Dr. Gerry Giesbrecht, Clinical Psychologist and Associate Professor in Pediatrics and Community Health Sciences, University of Calgary Title: Socioecological determinants of DOHaD during the COVID-19 pandemic
11:45-12:00pm	Trainee 1	Trainee 1	Trainee 1
12:00-12:15pm	Trainee 2	Trainee 2	Trainee 2
12:15-12:30pm	Trainee 3	Trainee 3	Trainee 3
12:30-1:30pm Free time and Breakout rooms for virtual poster Q&A
1:30-2:15pm	Dr. Anita Kozyrskyj, Professor of Pediatrics, University of Alberta Title: TBA	Dr. Meghan Azad, Associate Professor of Pediatrics and Child Health, University of Manitoba Title: TBA	Keynote Speaker: TBA
	Open to all DOHaD related topics		Closing remarks and trainee awards
2:15-2:30pm	Trainee 4	Trainee 4
2:30-2:45pm	Trainee 5	Trainee 5
2:45-3:00pm	Trainee 6	Trainee 6
3:00-3:30pm Breakout rooms for virtual poster Q&A

*trainee poster presentations will be a 3 minutes flash talk and open to all DOHaD related topics.